

Alex Forehand

Associate

New York City, NY, United States | LinkedIn

Securities and crypto litigation attorney with expertise in blockchain regulation, market manipulation cases, and digital asset compliance.

EXPERIENCE

Associate

Kelman PLLC

Feb 2022 — Aug 2023

New York, New York, United States

Sole associate representing high-profile clients in complex litigations involving bankruptcy, securities fraud, and market manipulation. Managed $13M dispute over market making agreement as lead counsel and recovered frozen funds through international court orders. Handles regulatory compliance for blockchain companies, including analysis of crypto business models under state and federal money transmitter regulations and negotiation of SAFTs and market making agreements.

Research Assistant

Seton Hall University School of Law

May 2021 — Aug 2021

Newark, New Jersey, United States

Legal Intern

Exiger

May 2021 — Oct 2021

New York, New York, United States

Supported in-house counsel on capital raise initiatives and regulatory compliance. Researched and produced legal memorandum analyzing data scraping under Europe's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Sales Representative

Vivint Smart Home

May 2017 — Aug 2017

St. Louis, Missouri

EDUCATION

Seton Hall University School of Law

J.D.

Sep 2022 — Jun 2023

GPA: 3.45/4.33; Senior Editor, Seton Hall Law Review, Vol. 53; Published article: Coin Rush in the Virtual Wild West: The SEC as the New Sheriff in Town

University of Virginia

B.A. in Economics and Psychology

Sep 2016 — Jun 2020

Dean's List; GPA: 3.54/4.00

SKILLS

Cryptocurrency Law · Securities Litigation · Blockchain Regulation · RICO · Market Manipulation · Bankruptcy Law · Token Offerings · GDPR · Money Transmitter Regulations · Market Making Agreements · FINRA Compliance · International Law